4 star - Everybody's Got a Cousin in Miami

... including me. I almost took a job with my 2nd cousin back in 1986 refurbishing medical equipment. While there, I would continue school to be a Bio-Mechanical Engineer at a Florida University. Luckily, I met my wife in my last semester of school at UM and didn't have to worry about that dream come true.

- I like the instrument interaction of the band, but don't care too much for the beginning of the song.
- Robert has excellent steel drums in this song.
- The history lesson is cool.
- What does an Aborigine have to do with Florida? I think he just likes saying Aborigine.

3 star - Fruitcakes

- I don't get the whole beginning. Junior Mints have always been at the theaters
- And how does 8 more ounces of cherry-coke constitute organization?
- I do like the impromptu religion class.
- This is my daughter's favorite song.

5 star - Lone Palm

- One of the slower songs on the album but this one's my favorite
- I always like how he brings the sea and tropical life into songs.

4 Star - Six String Music

- Only in a Buffett tune can you straddle the equator in Zanzibar, when the country is completely south of the equator off the coast of Tanzania; but I guess Keyna doesn't really rhyme with guitar.

1 Star - Uncle John's Band

- The line “Will you come with me, won’t you come with me, Oh oh all I want to know, will you come with me?” is really annoying.

4 Star - Love in the Library

- Good image of a hot chick reaching for a book on her tip toes with a sun dress on...and that’s all.
- Found out that Kudzu is a wild flower which grows in the Southern United States
- Probably the only song in Western civilization that mentions Gustave Flaubert (December 12, 1821 – May 8, 1880) was a French writer who is counted among the greatest Western novelists. And of course, He went to Paris looking for answers.

1 Star - Quietly Making Noise

- Even though it’s his dedication song to Gamble Rogers, the whole felt berets and rubber thongs thing just bothers me.

3 Star - Frenchmen for the Night

- Good song but I hate the French, probably the second most rude people on this planet after buckeyes.

2 Star - Sunny Afternoon

- After 4 years of nothing new, he could have found a better cover song.

3 Star - Vampires, Mummies and The Holy Ghost

- Funny nonsense song that every album needs

2 Star -She's Got You

- See Sunny Afternoon

4 Star - Delaney Talks to Statues

Good Daddy / Daughter Song

Reimds me of my daughter at a younger age.

3 Star – Apocalypso

Good Buffetty style song that fits only Jimmy.

Four years since a new album and it was about time
Excellent album to get started on Buffett. Combines good, fast, fun, nonsense songs with Florida referenceing, sloer paced, female background vocal songs. A mix of what Buffett keeps Buffett off most radio stations back then, how do you classify hi m?
Did our concert start with a conga lin e or am I just remembering that Mickey saw/heard about oter concerts and we needed to wath for it.
